PREPARING FOR THE ROUNDTABLE

1

Identify the products or services of interest

2

Request that the Trade Promotion Office schedules meetings with related companies.

3

Be clear about the product or service needed: talent characteristics, volume, price range, payment method, and dates of interest.

4

Know what the competition offers for these products or services on the market.

FOLLOW-UP MEETINGS

It is recommended to keep track of any appointments or agreements defined during the meetings and email companies of interest periodically to schedule follow-up calls or video conferences.

Costa Rica stands out for its export offer's quality, diversification, added value, and positioning, as well as its remarkable human talent and creativity.
